

Devon Funding News

University of Exeter Business Service

Focus of fund/fund aims:

To provide information and advice on technical issues, research and development projects, exploitation of intellectual property, technology, access to knowledge, and graduate placements to help businesses with research projects within the county of Devon.

Application deadline:

See further information.

Fund description:

Information and advice on technical issues, research and development projects, exploitation of intellectual property, technology, access to knowledge, and graduate placements to help businesses with research projects within the county of Devon.

Services are primarily aimed at those businesses using technology, engineering, science and innovation located in the county of Devon.

Further information:

<http://www.ex.ac.uk/business>